

ASQ Edwards Medal Nomination Profile

(To be completed by the person nominating the candidate.)

Named after George D. Edwards, distinguished pioneer of quality:

The ASQ Edwards Medal is presented to the individual who has demonstrated the most outstanding leadership in the application of modern quality control methods, especially through the organization and administration of such work.

Your help is needed to make it possible for the committee to select the single most deserving candidate for the Edwards Medal. Please complete this nomination form and assess your nominee in the six major areas listed on the following pages.

Keep in mind:

- ◆ the members of the committee have been in the quality field for many years. Some may be retired, past presidents, and still others pre-eminent practitioners in the quality field in industry, government, and academia.
- ◆ The Medal's namesake, George D. Edwards was the Director of Bell Telephone Laboratories' Inspection Engineering Department when much of the seminal work on modern quality philosophy and modern quality control methods was performed there.
- ◆ Edwards Medal recipients are exemplars of good quality leadership--people with contributions for others to follow.
- ◆ This screening process will assist the committee in the assessment of the candidates for the Edwards Medal.

The committee appreciates your participation.

Please send completed nomination to: ASQ
