

Emerging Quality Leaders Program

Excellence Through Quality™

QUICK FACTS

ASQ's Emerging Quality Leaders Program

Formatted as a 12-month program, this exclusive leadership skill-building experience accelerates the transfer of executive knowledge, soft skills, and broader industry perspectives to develop the next generation of quality executives.

Launching in spring at the World Conference on Quality and Improvement, the Program includes four main learning components:

- Self-paced virtual sessions
- Live Q & A sessions
- One-to-one ASQ member mentoring
- Individual projects (focused on strength-building and delivering ROI)
